Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

WAR FOOD ADMINISTRATION   FDA - 8/9/43
453261
Minimum Isolation Distances 1/ for Varieties and Types of Brassica (Cabbage, Cauliflower, Kale, Etc.)
Recommended by Roy Magruder, June 25, 1943
Mount Vernon, Washington

Classification

Group 1. (Early Pointed)
   Jersey Wakefield
   Charleston Wakefield

Group 2. (Late Pointed)
   Winnigstadt

Group 3. (Early Round)
   Golden Acre
   Green Acre
   Early Copenhagen
   Resistant Detroit

Group 4. (Midseason Round)
   Medium Copenhagen
   Glory
   Midseason Market
   Ferrys Round Dutch
   Racine Market)
   Marion Market) Yellows Res.
   Globe   )

Group 5. (Late Round-Danish)
   Danish Ball Head
   Reeds Ball Head
   Oakview Ball Head '
   Penn. State Ball Head
   Wisc. Ball Head)
   Wisc. Hollander) Yellows Res.
   Bugner   )

Group 6. (Flat or Drumhead)
   Steins Early Flat Dutch
   Late Flat Dutch
   All Seasons
   Succession Brunswick

Group 7. (Miscellaneous)
   Red Cabbage
   Savoy Cabbage
   Kale
   Kohlrabi
   Brussels Sprouts
   Sprouting Broccoli
   Cauliflower

Isolation Distances

40 rods or 660 feet
   Between any 2 varieties within any one group, except within group 7.

60 rods or 990 feet
   (a) Between any variety in group 1 and any variety in group 2.
   (b) Between any variety in group 3, 4 or 5 and any variety in any other of the groups 3, 4 or 5.

80 rods or 1320 feet
   (a) Between any variety in group 1 or 2 (pointed head) and any variety in group 3, 4, 5 (round head) or 6 (flat head).
   (b) Between any variety in group 3, 4 or 5 (round head) and any variety in group 6 (flat or drumhead).
   (c) Between any variety of any one of the 7 kinds in group 7 and any other variety of the same kind.

320 rods or 5280 feet
   Between any variety in any one of the 7 kinds in group 7 and any variety in any of the other kinds in group 7 or in any of the other groups.

1/ It should be emphasized that these are minimum not average distances and that greater distances are desirable where they can be obtained.